

PROGRAMME

For European Social Meetings

12-15th DECEMBER 2018

au Cnam 292 rue Saint-Martin - 75003 Paris

The meetings will be held across roundtables and workshops. This will be an opportunity to promote debate and share best practices around five themes.

– TOPIC 1: How does civil society remain independent and in opposition when increasingly relying on government 's décisions (evaluation, calls for projects)

Description

In a context where civil society organisations are increasingly constrained by governmental evaluation for programmes and calls for projects, is there space for continuing to act as watchdogs over economic, social and educational policies and their impact? Can CSOs remain alternative spaces for citizens?

TOPIC 2: Solutions to bring the political dimension of social work in educators' training to combat social inequalities

Description

What type of sources, cultures and training are necessary within social work to combat inequalities and social injustice? What are the different ways to introduce the political dimension in the social sector for educators and their training?

TOPIC 3: Collaborating with communities and citizens to co-design projects and solutions

Description

To organise increased common participation to projects and solutions, what role should be given to the community, locals, citizens, public service users (e.g. patients from hospitals) ?

TOPIC 4: Developing the creative and innovative skills of disadvantaged people

Description

How can people view differently disadvantaged people to strengthen their capacities and develop their competencies.

TOPIC 5: How can we develop a fair society based on cultural diversity and international solidarity?

Description

How are european projects from civil society contributing to well-being and participation in living together?
